

User Manual

Introduction

This document is to provide an idea about how the Program will run and details about the functions to make it easier for the user to use the program.

Menu:

Upon clicking on “Build and run” from Codeblocks or double clicking on wallet.exe, a command line (CMD) windows appears that work as a simple menu driven program.

User can select numbers (1-4 & 0) to use the program.

1. View Wallet

User gets a unique wallet number by default and can edit his address and phone number from the Update Wallet info (2). Users can check their wallet information selecting 1 and press enter.

2. Make a Transaction

Deposit (Add) or withdraw (Remove) money from/to the wallet selecting a specific category and the date will be automatically be date on operating system .

3. List Transactions

Users can check their incoming and outgoing transactions from the transaction list selecting 6 on keyboard.

4. Sort By expense

Users can sort their incomes and expenses by descending order by pressing 5 on keyboard and pressing enter. This showing the large expenses and small expenses and incomes.

5. Exit

Closes the program

